

Using fake ID today?

Did you know that it is a criminal offence to alter a driver's licence or identification card in any way?

It may not seem like a big deal right now, but there are serious consequences to using fraudulent ID, or loaning your ID for fraudulent purposes, including:

- having your real driver's licence suspended for at least three months
- a fine of up to $1,000
- a possible fraud conviction under the Criminal Code that could affect your employment, education and chances of travelling outside of Canada
- getting other people fined, fired or even put out of business

Using fake ID has real consequences.
Is it really worth the risk?
