Section One - General Information

The Saskatchewan Liquor and Gaming Authority (SLGA), a corporate body created by law, issues permits for the possession, sale, importation and delivery of recreational cannabis. SLGA regulates the operation of cannabis retail stores and wholesale warehouses for which a permit has been issued. Each permit holder is required to operate their business in accordance with municipal, provincial and federal laws, including purchasing cannabis only from sources authorized by SLGA.

For more information about the application process and ongoing operating requirements, please see the Cannabis Regulatory Policy Manual available at www.sлга.com/permits-and-licences/cannabis-permits.

Fee schedule

A non-refundable application fee of $2,200 applies. In addition to the application fee, the permit is subject to an annual permit fee ($3,300 for all wholesale permits and for retail stores located in cities; $1,650 for retail stores located elsewhere). SLGA may also charge applicants on a cost recovery basis for expenses incurred as a result of investigations into individual or corporate backgrounds.

The permit may be issued for up to three years. Applicants can pay the fee in annual installments due at the time the permit is issued and on each anniversary date thereafter or can pay the full three-year fee at the time the permit is issued.

Processing time

SLGA recommends that applicants allow at least 180 days for processing. Several factors may contribute to the time needed to issue a permit, including:

- Any incomplete, missing, or incorrect information on the application
- Municipal or band confirmation that cannabis businesses are not prohibited in that community
- Review of personal and corporate information, and any related investigations, to establish that the applicant is of suitable character to operate a cannabis business
- Construction or renovation of physical premises, followed by SLGA inspection
- Configuration of inventory tracking and reporting systems, followed by SLGA confirmation, and
- Confirmation that all owners and employees have taken mandatory social responsibility training (retail only)

Applying for a cannabis permit does not guarantee approval. Any construction, renovations, leases, purchases, etc. completed prior to confirmation of permit eligibility are at your own risk.

SLGA reserves the right to close any open application after a period inactivity of at least six months. Before SLGA closes an application, a licensing specialist will reach out to the applicant to determine if the applicant still intends to pursue the application.

For further information or help completing this application, please email cannabisinquiries@slga.com. You can also call SLGA toll-free at 1(800) 667-7565 or in Regina at (306) 787-5563.

Section Two – Before You Proceed

What do you need to start the application process?

To start the process, SLGA needs Sections Three to Seven inclusive from this application package in order to assess the character and financial status of any individuals and corporations that have an ownership or financial interest in the applicant business.

As of September 1, 2020, SLGA requires applicants who are applying for two or more permits at a time within one municipality to provide copies of documents verifying legal possession of the premises for every application at the time the initial application is submitted. If you are submitting only one application for a municipality, this information does not have to be included in the initial application package but will be required before a permit can be issued. For the purpose of validating multiple applications, SLGA will accept binding agreements to lease or purchase in addition to the document types listed in Section Eight. Please be aware before you enter into any binding agreements that you do so at your own risk, as SLGA cannot guarantee that the permit will be approved or that the location will meet local bylaw requirements.

See the Cannabis Regulatory Policy Manual, available at www.slga.com, for detailed information about the application process as well as requirements for permitting and operation of your particular type of cannabis business. Note that cannabis retail operations located in communities of less than 2,500 people may be located in or adjacent to an existing business if they meet all the requirements specified in the Cannabis Regulatory Policy Manual for integrated cannabis retail stores.

- Applicant, Contact, and Business Information (Section Three)

Under The Cannabis Control (Saskatchewan) Act and The Cannabis Control (Saskatchewan) Regulations, SLGA cannot issue a cannabis retail store or wholesale permit in a community where the municipal or band council has prohibited those types of businesses. Upon receiving an application, if there is no existing retail store or wholesale warehouse in that community, SLGA will notify the municipality or band that an application has been received, and the municipality or band will be given 45 calendar days to respond. If the municipality requests additional time for consideration or consultation, SLGA will grant the request as no permit can be issued until SLGA receives confirmation that such businesses are allowed in that community.

Section Eight - Additional Information to be Submitted

The following additional information will be required in order to complete your application and before a permit can be issued, but does not have to be included in your initial application package.

- A detailed description of the inventory management and sales tracking system that will be used.
  - For specifications, see the Appendix: Cannabis Tracking and Reporting section of the Cannabis Regulatory Policy Manual available at www.slga.com

It is strongly recommended that you discuss your proposed security measures with SLGA before any construction or renovations start

  - If you are planning changes to the layout of an existing permitted warehouse, retail store, or related storage facility, please ensure your floor plan drawing clearly labels the proposed renovations
  - A floor plan is not typically required if the warehouse, retail store, or related storage facility has been previously permitted and the applicant is not making any changes to the current layout

- An SLGA Cannabis Inspector will attend the proposed location of the cannabis warehouse or retail store and any related storage facilities in order to verify the contents of the submitted application package. This will include but is not limited to the verification of the security safeguards as well as the existence and proper configuration of the inventory management and sales tracking system.
- You will be required to complete and submit a Declaration of Compliance form (Section Nine) verifying that your business complies with all other applicable legislation.
