Part 7 – Bank Account Information

You must open and maintain a lottery bank account to deposit and disburse money raised from conducting charitable gaming events. This bank account cannot be used for other financial transactions that are separate from your charitable gaming activities. If your organization conducts more than one type of charitable gaming event (e.g. bingo, raffle, etc.), separate deposits must be made.

- I confirm (✓) that my organization has or will be opening a lottery bank account for the charitable gaming proceeds

You must appoint a minimum of 2 people to have signing authority for the lottery bank account. These people can be members of your executive but cannot be related to each other.

Lottery records must be kept and maintained in Saskatchewan. SLGA defines lottery records as admission/entry ticket stubs, unsold admission/entry ticket, list of winners, your licence, any addendums to your licence, copies of financial reports, banking records and any other information related to your licence.

Part 8 – Consent Information

I DECLARE that I have signing authority on behalf of the organization to which this application relates. I further declare that all of the information provided on this application is true, correct and complete to the best of my knowledge.

I CONSENT to the Saskatchewan Liquor and Gaming Authority (SLGA) collecting additional information about the organization as may be necessary to verify the information contained on this application. I understand that this information is collected for the purpose of determining my eligibility for a charitable gaming licence.

I CONSENT to SLGA sharing information authorized to be collected under SLGA legislation to regulating authorities and other jurisdictions. I understand that information regarding the conduct and management of my charitable gaming licence(s) may be released under Section 24 of The Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act and that such information may include, but is not limited to, a description of the organization's charitable object or purpose, their licence number(s) and the amount of charitable proceeds generated from their charitable gaming licence(s). I release SLGA and any person from any source, including their officers, agents and employees, from all liability respecting the collection or release of information by or to SLGA.
