Suppliers that Require Registration

1. Gaming Suppliers That Are Required To Register

With the exception of those outlined in (3), all suppliers of gaming supplies or services must register. The Act defines gaming supplies and services to be:

- the provision of any supplies or services that, in SLGA's opinion:
 - (1) could influence the outcome of a lottery scheme; or
 - (2) are integral to the operation or conduct and management of a lottery scheme
- the use or possession of a gaming establishment if the owner of the gaming establishment has an interest in the operation or conduct and management of a lottery scheme carried on in the gaming establishment;
- the sale, rental, lease, gift, exchange, loan, printing, publication, distribution or manufacturing of any gaming supplies, including any lot, card, ticket, paper, slip, symbol, token, coin, machine, device, equipment or game;
- the provision of management or consulting services with respect to the operation or conduct and management of a lottery scheme;
- the provision, distribution, installation, maintenance, repair of a surveillance or security system for any premises kept for the operation or conduct and management of a lottery scheme;
- the manufacture, provision, distribution, installation, maintenance or repair of gaming equipment;
- the provision of gaming employees; or
- the provision of training to persons in the installation or maintenance of gaming equipment, in the operation or playing of a lottery scheme or in any other gaming-related aspect of the operation or conduct and management of a lottery scheme.

2. Non-Gaming Suppliers That Are Required To Register

The Act defines non-gaming supplies and services as any supplies or services other than gaming supplies or services. Some suppliers of non-gaming supplies or services must register with SLGA.

Notwithstanding (3), all suppliers of non-gaming supplies or services are exempt from registration EXCEPT those companies that provide the following:

- employees who work in the gaming area of a casino on an ongoing basis without escort by a gaming employee;
- financial services; or
- services that have an influence on the layout and design of a casino.

3. Suppliers Who Are Exempt from Registration

A supplier of both gaming and non-gaming supplies and services is exempt from registration where:

- the supplier's business is regulated by the Government of Saskatchewan or Canada, or an agency of them, and the regulatory body carries out due diligence investigations that are satisfactory to SLGA;
- the supplier is a member of a professional organization established by statute to regulate the members of the professional organization (this type of supplier includes banks, insurance companies, chartered accountants and/or chartered accountant companies, lawyers, investment consultants, engineers and architects); or
- the supplier is a site contractor for video lottery terminals.

5. Exempted Suppliers that May Require Registration

Where, in SLGA's opinion, it is in the best interest of the public to register a supplier that is exempt from registration pursuant to the Regulations, the supplier shall make an application for registration in accordance with the provisions of the Act.

Completion of Additional Forms

1. Personal Disclosure Forms

Any person who is defined as a key person must complete a Personal Disclosure form. Key people include:

- suppliers of gaming and non-gaming supplies and services who are individuals or partners,
- a person who owns 5% or more of a supplier's business,
- a person who, in the opinion of SLGA, has control over, has provided direct or indirect financing to, or has a beneficial interest in the supplier, the supplier's business, or an affiliated corporation of the supplier,
- a person who is a member of the executive and participates in management or corporate decisions, and
- members of the board of directors, key stakeholders, officers and senior executive like the CEO, CFO, Executive Directors and Vice Presidents.

Please contact our office and request a copy of the SLGA Personal Disclosure Form.

2. Gaming Employee Registration Applications

For the purpose of this application, a gaming employee is defined as people:

- employed by a supplier who have access to the gaming floor, technical services area or other secure area of a casino to which the general public does not have access. An example of a gaming employee includes, but is not limited to, those providing technical services, and
- employed by a supplier who have access to sensitive or confidential patron and/or gaming-related information.

If any of your technical staff or individuals you have contracted to provides services on your behalf needs to attend any of Saskatchewan's gaming locations, they must register as gaming employees with SLGA.

Please contact our office if you require a copy of the SLGA Gaming Employee Application for Certificate of Registration – Supplier Employees.

3. Criminal Record Checks

All key people and gaming employees who are not citizens or naturalized citizens of Canada and who reside outside of Canada must provide a Criminal Record Check from their local police agency. SLGA will accept any form prescribed and completed by the police agency or the key people and gaming employees can use the SLGA form titled Certification of Criminal History and Related Information and submit that form to the police agency for completion. A copy of the SLGA form is attached to each Personal Disclosure Form. Fingerprint submissions are not required.

Eligibility

1. Eligibility Criteria

To be eligible for registration, a supplier and its key people must:

- be of good character,
- be financially stable with a history of financial solvency,
- be capable of providing supplies and services that are suitable and demonstrate a level of skill, experience, knowledge, and ability necessary to supply the supplies and services for which the applicant is requesting registration,
- be in compliance with provincial and federal tax laws, and
- be of legal age to transact business in the gaming industry.

When determining whether a supplier is qualified, SLGA considers the business itself, its key people, and other businesses and individuals that have direct contact with the supplier applying for registration

2. Ineligibility Criteria

A supplier is not eligible for registration if their business or any of its key people:

- has been convicted of a criminal offense involving, but not limited to, theft, deceit, public morals, gaming, customs, income tax, firearms or drugs (Note that a criminal conviction, in and of itself, does not represent risk to the integrity of the gaming industry. A conviction in the context of good character is weighed against the circumstances, the length of time since the offence, and evidence of rehabilitation.),
- has been found to be liable in a civil court involving fraud, deceit, misrepresentation or breach of trust,

- has displayed conduct exemplifying a lack of good character,
- has provided false or misleading information,
- has a history of problem gambling, alcohol or drug abuse,
- has been denied a gaming or non-gaming registration or similar license in another jurisdiction,
- are insolvent, or
- fails to provide documents required by Section 147 of The Alcohol and Gaming Regulation Act, 1997.

3. Good Character Criteria

SLGA determines if a supplier and its key people are of good character by reviewing all aspects of their personal, financial business and criminal history. The assessment of an applicant's criminal history is one of a number of critical factors in determining suitability. This review may include (but is not limited to):

- the circumstances of any criminal investigation relating to a business or its principals and key persons,
- the nature and disposition of any criminal charges which a business or its key people received,
- the amount of time since the last offence, and
- any efforts the individuals may have made towards rehabilitation and any treatment individuals may have received.

Fees

1. Annual Fees

The annual registration fee per year is available here. Please pay in Canadian Funds. You can submit the fee for the first year with your application or for all three years. The first year's fee is non-refundable.

The Regulations provide that a supplier who would normally be charged a annual fee, and who conducts less than $10,000 Canadian dollars' worth of gaming business in a 12 month period, may be exempt from paying the annual fee. If your company anticipates supplying less than $10,000 (Canadian) worth of gaming business in Saskatchewan on an annual basis, SLGA may waive the first year's annual fee. The requirement to pay the subsequent annual fees is assessed on an annual basis and is dependent on the amount of business conducted by your company in the previous 12 months of registration.

Make cheques or money orders payable to the Saskatchewan Liquor and Gaming Authority.

Companies outside of Canada can make electronic deposits to:

Saskatchewan Liquor and Gaming Authority Consolidated Gaming Account
 Royal Bank of Canada
 2002 11th Ave.
 Regina, Sask. S4P 0J3
 Bank ID: 00003
 Branch 00008
 Account: 1003813
 Swift code: ROYCCAT2

2. Due Diligence Review & Investigation Costs

SLGA will make inquiries and conduct an investigation with respect to the character, financial responsibility and capability of your business and its key people. The length of time needed to investigate will depend on the size of your business, the location of your offices, and the products and/or services you offer. SLGA will seek reimbursement of all reasonable costs it incurred in the due diligence review of your company and any of its key people.

Intergovernmental Registration

Your business may need to register with the Information Services Corporation of Saskatchewan (ISC), and that process is separate from the SLGA registration. Please contact ISC at:

Phone: (306) 787-2962
 Fax: (306) 787-8999
 Email: corporateregistry@isc.ca

General Information

1. Confidentiality of Information and Material

SLGA will retain the personal information on this form only as long as it is necessary to fulfill the purposes for which it was collected and in accordance with approved mandatory retention policies and schedules established with cooperation of the Saskatchewan Archives Board under The Saskatchewan Archives Act.
