Section One - General Information

The Saskatchewan Liquor and Gaming Authority (SLGA), a corporate body created by law, issues permits for the possession, sale, importation and delivery of recreational cannabis. SLGA regulates the operation of cannabis retail stores and wholesale warehouses for which a permit has been issued. Each permit holder is required to operate their business in accordance with municipal, provincial, and federal laws, including purchasing cannabis only from sources authorized by SLGA.

For more information about the application process and ongoing operating requirements, please see the Cannabis Regulatory Policy Manual available at www.slga.com/permits-and-licences/cannabis-permits.

Fee schedule - renewal

The one-time application fee is not required for permit renewals. An annual permit fee ($3,300 per year for all wholesale permits and for retail stores located in cities; $1,650 for retail stores located elsewhere) applies. SLGA may also charge applicants on a cost recovery basis for expenses incurred as a result of investigations into individual or corporate backgrounds.

The permit may be renewed for up to three years. Applicants can pay the fee in annual installments due at the time the permit is renewed and on each anniversary date thereafter or can pay the full three-year fee at the time the permit is renewed.

Processing time

SLGA recommends that applicants allow at least 60 days for processing. Several factors may contribute to the time needed to renew a permit, including:

- Any incomplete, missing, or incorrect information on the application
- Review of personal and corporate information, and any related investigations, to establish that the applicant is of suitable character to continue operating a cannabis business

Applying for a cannabis renewal permit does not guarantee approval. Any construction, renovations, leases, purchases, etc. completed prior to confirmation of permit eligibility are at your own risk.

For further information or help completing this application, please email cannabisinquiries@slga.com. You can also call SLGA toll-free at 1(800) 667-7565 or in Regina at (306) 787-5563.

Section Two – Before You Proceed

What does the renewal process involve?

To renew an existing cannabis permit, SLGA needs to confirm that all of the information in our records related to your cannabis business is up to date and that the applicant and any key stakeholders continue to be of suitable character to operate a cannabis business in Saskatchewan. Because SLGA evaluates the suitability of individuals on a three-year cycle, you may not need to complete Section Four – Information Required of Individuals for everyone identified in your renewal package. See below for more information about which individuals are required to complete and submit Section Four.

See the Cannabis Regulatory Policy Manual, available at www.slga.com, for detailed information about the application process as well as requirements for permitting and operation of your particular type of cannabis business.

Information required of all applicants

- Permittee, Contact, and Business Information (Section Three)
- Financial and Business Agreements (Section Six)
- Certification of Information (Section Seven)

Information required of individuals

 - Part 2 – Criminal record check
 - Part 3 – Employment and investment history
 - Part 4 – Personal and criminal history
 - Part 5 – Personal financial information
 - Part 6 – Consent to obtain and release information and declaration of honesty (personal)

Who needs to provide this information?

- Any of the following individuals who have not submitted a Section Four disclosure form in the past three years, or who have material changes to disclose about information previously submitted:
 - Any individuals who are applicants or general partners in the permitted cannabis business
 - If an applicant is a First Nation, the chief and council members
 - If an applicant or partner is a corporation, all officers and directors of that corporation
 - If an applicant is a partnership, the officers and directors of any general partner corporations
 - Any individual who has at least 10% overall ownership interest in the permitted cannabis business, whether directly, through shares held in a shareholder corporation, as a beneficiary of a trust, or through any other ownership or compensation structure

Information required of corporations

(Section Five, copy as needed)

- Corporate Disclosure form, consisting of:
 - Part 1 – Corporate information

Section Four – Information Required of Individuals

Who must complete this part of the application?

SLGA is required by The Cannabis Control (Saskatchewan) Act and by corporate policy to determine whether or not an applicant for a cannabis permit or registration is of good character. When determining good character, SLGA may consider the business itself, its owners and key decision-makers, and if necessary, any other businesses and individuals that have direct or indirect control or involvement in the business applying for the permit renewal.

The following individuals must complete and submit all forms in this section if it has been at least three years since they have undergone SLGA's due diligence process:

- Any individual who are applicants or general partners in the permitted cannabis business
- If an applicant is a First Nation, the chief and council members
- If an applicant is a corporation, the officers and directors of that corporation
- If an applicant is a partnership, the officers and directors of any general partner corporations
- Any individual who has at least 10% overall ownership interest in the permitted cannabis business, whether directly, through shares held in a shareholder corporation, as a beneficiary of a trust, or through any other ownership or compensation structure

SLGA may require at its discretion completed Sections Fours from other individuals who have financial interest in or exercise significant control over the operation of the cannabis business, including but not limited to investors, franchisors, managers, management companies, associates, and corporate executives.

General information

1. Provide an answer to every question. If there is not enough room to provide a complete answer, use a separate sheet of paper and reference the applicable section.
2. All personal information you provide to SLGA is confidential. SLGA is required under The Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act to protect the confidentiality of personal information in its possession and control, and to use the information only for the purpose for which it is collected.
3. SLGA will conduct a due diligence interview or investigation in order to establish your suitability to be involved with a cannabis permitted or registered business. Through the interview or investigation process, SLGA will gather any information it considers necessary and may request additional information from you, including character references. By signing the attached consent, you are agreeing that SLGA may collect and use this information for the current and any future applications that you are involved with.
4. You are required to inform SLGA within seven days of any changes to the information you supplied that might affect your suitability. Changes that you must report include, but are not limited to, change of address, new charges, convictions, findings of guilt, civil or bankruptcy proceedings and/or if you are the subject of a cannabis investigation by a regulatory agency, other than as an applicant for permitting, licensing, or registration purposes. This requirement applies both before and after the permit or registration is issued.

5. For questions relating to the existence of a criminal history, be aware that a criminal history may include criminal investigations, interviews, detentions, arrests and charges that may or may not have resulted in a conviction. Any statements regarding a criminal history will be verified by SLGA, including but not limited to verification through a criminal record check.

Answer 'yes' to the questions if:

- i) you were charged and convicted of a criminal offence
- ii) the charges were dismissed or subsequently downgraded to a lesser charge
- iii) the charges were stayed
- iv) you received a conditional discharge
- v) you completed an alternative measures or other similar program
- vi) you were charged but not convicted
- vii) you were questioned by the police in relation to your personal involvement in criminal activity
- viii) you were contacted to be questioned by police and had a lawyer or other representative intercede with police on your behalf, or
- ix) the investigation, charges or offence happened in another jurisdiction/province/country

Answer 'no' to the questions if:

- i) you received a pardon under The Criminal Records Act (Canada) or similar legislation, or if any records relating to a charge or conviction have been expunged or otherwise officially sealed by a court or government agency, or
- ii) you have never been investigated, arrested, detained, interviewed, charged or convicted of an offence

Part 6 – Consent to obtain and release information and declaration of honesty (personal)

Legal Name from Part 1: _____

The Saskatchewan Liquor and Gaming Authority (SLGA) is required to collect personal information for the purpose of permitting or registering prospective and current cannabis businesses. The following consent form allows SLGA representatives to verify or investigate the information provided in this Personal Disclosure form and any permit or registration application. SLGA is required under The Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act to protect the confidentiality of such information in its possession and control, and to use the information only for the purpose for which it is collected. SLGA will retain the personal information on this form only as long as it is necessary to fulfill the purposes for which it was collected and in accordance with approved mandatory retention policies and schedules established with cooperation of the Saskatchewan Archives Board under The Saskatchewan Archives Act.

I, THE UNDERSIGNED, HEREBY:

- (a) consent to the direct and indirect collection from any source and to the use by Saskatchewan Liquor and Gaming Authority (SLGA) of all personal, financial, business, general, or criminal information or documents that SLGA may reasonably require to determine an applicant's suitability to obtain and hold a cannabis permit or registration, namely whether the applicant (including but not limited to individuals such as shareholders, officers, directors and affiliated companies, identified in connection with the applicant) is of good character;
- (b) consent to the release by SLGA of any information authorized to be collected pursuant to clause (a), to any law enforcement agency, other regulatory jurisdiction or agency with which SLGA has an arrangement or agreement;
- (c) consent to the release to SLGA by all persons, including but not limited to all federal, provincial, or municipal licensing bodies and departments, police services, law enforcement agencies, the registrar in bankruptcy, Canada Revenue Agency, credit bureaus, financial institutions, professional and industry associations, former and current employers, of all personal, financial, business, general or criminal information or documents that SLGA reasonably determines it requires respecting this application or any other cannabis application;
- (d) release all persons referred to in paragraph (c) including their officers, agents and employees, from all liability respecting the release of information to SLGA pursuant to paragraph (c);
- (e) acknowledge and understand that a photocopy of this document will have the same force and effect as the original;
- (f) understand that the consent is in effect for as long as I am involved with a cannabis business permitted or registered by SLGA; and
- (g) certify that the information provided in this Personal Disclosure form is accurate, correct, true, and free of omissions. I understand that if any of the information provided in this form is not accurate, correct, true, and free of omissions, SLGA may deny any application or may subsequently revoke any permit or registration with which I am involved. I further understand that if any of the information provided in this application is fraudulent, I may be subject to prosecution under the Criminal Code of Canada.

I have read and understand the above statement.

Section Five – Information Required of Corporations

Who must complete this part of the application?

In order to do business as a cannabis retailer, wholesaler, or supplier in Saskatchewan, a business must apply to the Saskatchewan Liquor and Gaming Authority (SLGA) for a cannabis permit or registration. SLGA is required by The Cannabis Control (Saskatchewan) Act and by corporate policy to determine whether or not an applicant for a cannabis permit or registration is of good character. When determining good character, SLGA may consider the business itself, its owners and key decision-makers, and if necessary, any other businesses and individuals that have direct or indirect control or involvement in the business applying for the renewal permit.

The following must complete and submit all forms in this section:

- Any corporations that are applicants or general partners in the proposed or permitted cannabis business
- Corporations that hold at least 10% overall ownership in the permitted cannabis business, whether directly, through shares held in a shareholder corporation, or through any other ownership or compensation structure

Applicants may be asked to provide part or all of the information requested in Section Five for limited partnerships, trusts, First Nations, and other non-corporate entities where SLGA deems it necessary for clarity or to conduct due diligence on those entities. SLGA may also require at its discretion completed Section Fives from other corporations who have financial interest in or exercise significant control over the operation of the cannabis business, including but not limited to investors, franchisors, management companies, and corporate executives.

General information

1. Provide an answer to every question. If there is not enough room to provide a complete answer, use a separate sheet of paper and reference the applicable section.
2. SLGA will retain the information on this form only as long as it is necessary to fulfill the purposes for which it was collected and in accordance with approved mandatory retention policies and schedules established with cooperation of the Saskatchewan Archives Board under The Saskatchewan Archives Act. SLGA is required under The Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act to protect the confidentiality of the information you provide and to use it only for the purposes for which it was collected.
3. You may withdraw your application if your plans change or if you do not wish to provide information about your business. To withdraw your application, submit a written request to SLGA at the address listed on this application form. However, once an application form and all related documents are received by SLGA, they become the property of SLGA and will not be returned. Any fees you have paid will be non-refundable.

Part 3—Corporate financial information

Financial statements for the past three years, or to the date your business first undertook any kind of activity including fundraising (whichever is less), must accompany this Corporate Disclosure form. They must be prepared by an accountant holding a professional designation and certified correct and in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. The statements must reflect the business operation for which the Corporate Disclosure form is being submitted and must include a balance sheet and income statement. Where applicable, consolidated financial statements must be submitted.

I confirm that I have attached the required financial statements described above.

SLGA reserves the right to require updated financial information as necessary.

Part 4 – Consent to obtain and release information and declaration of honesty (corporate)

The Saskatchewan Liquor and Gaming Authority (SLGA) is required to collect corporate information for the purpose of permitting or registering prospective and current cannabis businesses. The following consent form allows SLGA representatives to verify or investigate the information provided in this Corporate Disclosure form and any permit or registration application. SLGA is required under The Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act to protect the confidentiality of such information in its possession and control, and to use the information only for the purpose for which it is collected. SLGA will retain the corporate information on this form only as long as it is necessary to fulfill the purposes for which it was collected and in accordance with approved mandatory retention policies and schedules established with cooperation of the Saskatchewan Archives Board under The Saskatchewan Archives Act.

I, THE UNDERSIGNED, ON BEHALF OF THE NAMED CORPORATION, HEREBY:

- (a) consent to the direct and indirect collection from any source and to the use by Saskatchewan Liquor and Gaming Authority (SLGA) of all personal, corporate, financial, business, general, or criminal information or documents that SLGA may reasonably require to determine the applicant's suitability to obtain and hold a cannabis permit or registration, namely whether the applicant (including but not limited to individuals such as shareholders, officers, directors and affiliated companies, identified in connection with the applicant) is of good character;
- (b) consent to the release by SLGA of any information authorized to be collected pursuant to clause (a), to any law enforcement agency, other regulatory jurisdiction or agency with which SLGA has an arrangement or agreement;
- (c) consent to the release to SLGA by all persons, including but not limited to all federal, provincial, or municipal licensing bodies and departments, police services, law enforcement agencies, the registrar in bankruptcy, Canada Revenue Agency, credit bureaus, financial institutions, professional and industry associations, former and current employers, of all personal, corporate, financial, business, general or criminal information or documents that SLGA reasonably determines it requires respecting this application or any other cannabis application;
- (d) release all persons referred to in paragraph (c) including their officers, agents and employees, from all liability respecting the release of information to SLGA pursuant to paragraph (c);
- (e) acknowledge and understand that a photocopy of this document will have the same force and effect as the original;
- (f) understand that the consent is in effect for as long as this corporation is involved with a cannabis business permitted or registered by SLGA; and
- (g) certify that the information provided in this Corporate Disclosure form is accurate, correct, true, and free of omissions. I understand that if any of the information provided in this form is not accurate, correct, true, and free of omissions, SLGA may deny any application or may subsequently revoke any permit or registration with which I, the corporation, and/or the applicant is involved. I further understand that if any of the information provided in this application is fraudulent, I, the corporation, and/or the applicant may be subject to prosecution under the Criminal Code of Canada.

I have read and understand the above statement.
