

Custom Manufacturing by Saskatchewan (SK) Craft Alcohol Producers

Effective December 18, 2019

Policy

- Saskatchewan (SK) Craft Alcohol Producers may enter into contracts with entities to produce exclusive custom alcohol products for:
 - Resale, if the Contractee is a Commercial Permittee or Special Occasion Permittee (SOP); or
 - Personal consumption, if the Contractee is not a Commercial Permittee or SOP.
- Note: Please refer to the Contract Manufacturing by SK Craft Alcohol Producers Policy regarding requirements for alcohol products that are produced and branded for another alcohol producer.

Definitions

- Contractor: A SK Craft Alcohol Producer who agrees to manufacture exclusive custom alcohol product(s) for an entity.
- Contractee: An entity that contracts with a SK Craft Alcohol Producer to manufacture exclusive alcohol products.

General Requirements

- Contractees who are Commercial Permittees or SOPs may sell the custom alcohol products as allowed under their respective permits.
- Contractees who are not Commercial Permittees or SOPs cannot sell the custom alcohol products, as they are for personal consumption only.
 - Contractor is required to have Contractee agree in writing that the products will not be resold.
- If Contractee is located outside SK, the Contractor must be duly authorized within the receiving jurisdiction to engage in the custom manufacturing arrangement.

Labelling Requirements

- The Contractor must include their name and location on the label in a manner that clearly identifies them as the manufacturer.

Reporting Requirements

- The Contractor must report all products on their monthly production report for purposes of capturing global production.
- The Contractor must pay the production levy on all products sold.
- The Contractor and Contractee must keep all relevant records of the custom manufactured product on-site and available for inspection for two years.
