

Who Must Complete This Application?

All registered gaming regulators must use this form to apply for renewal of their certificate of registration.

General Information

1. Print or type your responses. You must answer every question in this application. Incomplete applications will be returned.
2. A passport-type photo is to be attached to this application. You can also email a photo of yourself (jpg format only) to registration@slga.com or make arrangements to have your photo taken in SLGA's Gaming Integrity & Licensing Branch in Regina. The photo should be head and shoulders only.
3. If SLGA identifies areas of concern in the review of your application, it will initiate an interview or investigation to establish your suitability to renew your registration as a gaming regulator. Through the interview or investigation process, SLGA will gather any information it considers necessary and may request additional information from you, including character references. By signing the attached consent, you are agreeing that SLGA may collect and use this information.
4. All personal information you provide to SLGA is confidential. SLGA is required under The Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act to protect the confidentiality of personal information in its possession and control, and to use the information only for the purpose for which it is collected.
5. You are required to inform SLGA within 7 days of any changes to the information you supplied that might affect your registration. Changes that you must report include, but are not limited to, change of address, new charges, convictions, findings of guilt, civil or bankruptcy proceedings and/or if you are the subject of a gaming investigation by a regulatory agency, other than as an applicant for registration/licensing purposes.
6. If your renewal application is approved, SLGA will mail you your registration tag containing your photo, name, title and registration number. The tag will be valid for three years, unless an earlier date is indicated.
7. If you have any questions regarding the registration process or any of the information found in this form, please contact the Director, Gaming Integrity & Licensing Branch - Saskatchewan Liquor and Gaming Authority at phone: (306) 787-4709; fax: (306) 798-0052 or email: registration@slga.com.

Part 9 – Consent to Obtain and Release Information and Declaration of Honesty

The Saskatchewan Liquor and Gaming Authority (SLGA) is required to collect personal information for the purpose of registering prospective and current gaming regulators. This information is collected under The Alcohol and Gaming Regulation Act, 1997. In order to comply with requirements set forth in The Alcohol and Gaming Regulation Act, 1997 and The Gaming Regulations, 2007, the following consent form allows SLGA representatives to verify or investigate the information provided in this registration application. SLGA is required under The Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act to protect the confidentiality of such information in its possession and control, and to use the information only for the purpose for which it is collected. SLGA will retain the personal information on this form only as long as it is necessary to fulfill the purposes for which it was collected and in accordance with approved mandatory retention policies and schedules established with cooperation of the Saskatchewan Archives Board under The Saskatchewan Archives Act.

I THE APPLICANT OR REGISTRANT HEREBY:

- (a) consent to the direct and indirect collection from any source and to the use by the Saskatchewan Liquor and Gaming Authority (SLGA) of all personal, financial, business, general, or criminal information or documents that SLGA may reasonably require to determine the prerequisites under The Alcohol and Gaming Regulation Act, 1997 and The Gaming Regulations, 2007 to grant and maintain a gaming regulator certificate of registration to the applicant, namely whether the applicant:
  - (i) is of good character; and
  - (ii) has suitable training or experience;
- (b) consent to the release by SLGA of any information authorized to be collected pursuant to clause (a), to any law enforcement agency, other gaming regulatory agency with respect to the conduct of investigations pursuant to the Acts and Regulations the gaming regulatory agency administers and any laws of Canada that are enforced by its officers or employees;
- (c) consent to the release to SLGA by all persons, including but not limited to all federal, provincial, or municipal licensing bodies and departments, police services, law enforcement agencies, the registrar in bankruptcy, Canada Revenue Agency, credit bureaus, financial institutions, professional and industry associations, former and current employers, of all personal, financial, business, general or criminal information or documents that SLGA reasonably determines it requires respecting this application;
- (d) release all persons referred to in paragraph (c) including their officers, agents and employees, from all liability respecting the release of information to SLGA pursuant to paragraph (c);
- (e) acknowledge and understand that a photocopy of this document will have the same force and effect as the original;
- (f) understand that the consent is in effect for as long as I hold a certificate of registration and for any registration renewals; and
- (g) certify that the information provided in this application is accurate, correct and true. I understand that if any of the information provided in this application is not accurate, correct and true, SLGA may deny my application or may subsequently revoke my gaming registration. I further understand that if any of the information provided in this application is fraudulent, I may be subject to prosecution under the Criminal Code of Canada.

I have read and understand the above statement.

Gaming Regulator Terms and Conditions

The terms and conditions herein are established by the Saskatchewan Liquor and Gaming Authority (SLGA) pursuant to The Alcohol and Gaming Regulation Act, 1997 and The Gaming Regulations, 2007.

1. DEFINITIONS

- (a) “Act” means The Alcohol and Gaming Regulation Act, 1997.
- (b) “Applicant” means, for the purpose of these terms and conditions, a person who has applied for a certificate of registration as a gaming regulator or a renewal of a certificate of registration as a gaming regulator.
- (c) “Certificate of Registration” means a certificate of registration granted pursuant to section 146 of The Alcohol and Gaming Regulation Act, 1997.
- (d) “Investigation” means an inquiry or review conducted by SLGA to determine the eligibility of an applicant to be registered or a gaming regulator to continue to be registered and includes, but is not limited to, an inquiry or review relating to the honesty and integrity and financial history of the applicant or gaming regulator.
- (e) “Regulations” means The Gaming Regulations, 2007.
- (f) “Relatives” include both immediate and extended family such as spouse (including common law), brother, sister, parent, child, grandparent, grandchild, great grandparents, son-in-law, daughter-in-law, mother-in-law, father-in-law, aunt, uncle, niece, nephew, first cousin, brother-in-law, sister-in-law, spouse’s grandparents, family relationships resulting from First Nations’ customary adoptions, and persons in the household for long periods of time and who the gaming regulator supports.
- (g) “SLGA” means the Saskatchewan Liquor and Gaming Authority.

2. NOTICE

- (a) An applicant or gaming regulator must provide SLGA with any information it considers necessary to determine whether a certificate of registration should be granted or denied. This includes giving SLGA access to any records it considers necessary, such as the applicant or gaming regulator’s personal, business, financial information, criminal record information and character references.
- (b) An applicant or gaming regulator is responsible for complying with and understanding the provisions of The Alcohol and Gaming Regulation Act, 1997, The Gaming Regulations, 2007 and the terms and conditions.
- (c) An applicant or gaming regulator must comply with applicable legislation, lawful policies, orders and directions of the province and its agents and conditions set out in policy established by SLGA.
- (d) An applicant or gaming regulator who operates in breach of any term or condition herein may be subject to a suspension or cancellation of the certificate of registration to which the breach relates.
- (e) Subsection 146(8) of The Alcohol and Gaming Regulation Act, 1997 authorizes SLGA to amend, vary, repeal, substitute or add any terms and conditions when a certificate of registration is issued, renewed or at any time during the period of registration.

3. GENERAL CONDITIONS

- (a) An applicant or gaming regulator must complete any forms SLGA considers necessary.
- (b) The information provided to SLGA must be accurate and complete.
- (c) An applicant or gaming regulator must provide SLGA with permission to obtain any information from any person or any source it considers necessary to determine whether they are of good character. SLGA may request this information at any time during a period of registration.
- (d) A gaming regulator must provide SLGA with verification of their criminal history within 7 days of a request.
- (e) A certificate of registration is valid:
  - i. for three years unless an earlier date is indicated; and
  - ii. for as long as the gaming regulator remains employed or holds the position for which they are registered. If the regulator's employment or employment term ends prior to the expiry of their registration, their registration immediately becomes null and void.
- (f) A gaming regulator may only possess one certificate of registration at a time.
- (g) A gaming regulator must obtain prior approval from SLGA before transferring to a different category or position that also requires registration.
- (h) A gaming regulator must continue to be of good character during their period of registration.
- (i) A gaming regulator must wear his or her certificate of registration and ensure the certificate can be viewed by the public when performing regulatory or audit functions at any Saskatchewan gaming locations.
- (j) An applicant or gaming regulator must disclose to SLGA (and their employer, if employed by a First Nation Gaming Licensing Authority) the names of all relatives who work at a gaming location in Saskatchewan. This includes relationships entered into during a period of registration.
- (k) A gaming regulator must comply with applicable legislation, lawful policies, orders and directions of the province and its agents and conditions set out in policy established by SLGA for the gaming regulator.
- (l) SLGA may conduct any background check or investigation at any time that it considers necessary or appropriate.
- (m) If an applicant or gaming regulator has misled SLGA, failed to provide information or provided inaccurate information, SLGA may take disciplinary action or impose sanctions including, but not limited to, the denial, suspension or cancellation of a registration.

4. CONFLICT OF INTEREST

- (a) A conflict of interest is any situation in which a gaming regulator, either for himself or herself or another person(s), promotes or attempts to promote a private or personal interest which results or appears to result in the following:
  - i. a conflict or interference with the exercise of his/her duties; or
  - ii. a gain or advantage by his/her position.
- (b) A gaming regulator must, at all times, seek to eliminate actual or perceived conflicts of interest while working with relatives at the same location.
- (c) A gaming regulator with a regulatory or audit function must remove them self from any actual or perceived conflict of interest with respect to a relative working at a gaming location in Saskatchewan.

5. NOTIFICATION OF CHANGES

- (a) A gaming regulator must notify the Director, Gaming Integrity & Licensing Branch within 7 days of any matter, action or conduct that may be of importance to SLGA, including, but not limited to:
- i. behaviour which relates to the gaming regulator's honesty and integrity,
  - ii. disciplinary action by the employer which relates to the gaming regulator's honesty and integrity,
  - iii. instances of non-compliance with the employer's policies which call into question the gaming regulator's honesty and integrity,
  - iv. being investigated in connection with, or detained, arrested, charged or convicted of any criminal, drug, gaming, customs, income tax offence, or any offence related to a government financial assistance program;
  - v. being sued in a civil proceeding;
  - vi. being the subject of a bankruptcy proceeding;
  - vii. being the subject of a gaming investigation by a regulatory agency, other than as an applicant;
  - viii. a change of address; or
  - ix. a change of name.
